Received at the First National Bank.
Feb. 17, 1864. A. TRADER, Cashier.

July 4th—78—'85.

Our readers will find, elsewhere in this paper, a timely communication from a citizen, upon the subject of celebrating the approaching Anniversary of American Independence.
The writer suggests that a meeting to make arrangements for the occasion be held at Fireman's Hall, on to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon, at four o'clock. The suggestion is eminently fit and proper, and in behalf of the expressed wish of many citizens, we endorse the suggestion, and call upon the people to respond to it in a manner commensurate with the object of the meeting.

It is the design of the projectors of this movement, to have a grand, glorious, patriotic, soul-stirring, old-fashioned Fourth-of-July Celebration, such as the early Guardians of the Republic thought fitting for the great American Epoch. It is intended to procure an eminent speaker from abroad—one whose name and fame and powers of oratory, will guarantee to all a splendid Fourth-of-July Oration. Then we shall have a Brass Band, and a Glee Club, and Fire and Drum, and Flags and Banners, and Wreaths and Portraits, and Toasts and Speeches, and Firecrackers and Cannon, and all the accompaniments of a patriotic old-time Celebration.

Our friends in the towns and cities of the State are moving as of one mind for celebrating the coming 4th. In Lebanon, in Springfield, in Columbus, in Cincinnati—all around us the people are making preparations. Shall we of Xenia stand back while all our neighbors move forward to meet the obligations of the Historic Day?

We owe it to the sacred memory of our Fathers who gave us the Day to celebrate—we owe it to the principles enunciated in our loved Magna Charta—we owe it to the heroes living and dead who fought and bled at Gettysburg re-baptizing anew in precious blood the glorious Anniversary—we owe it to all our soldiers, and especially to those who will then be in our midst—we owe it to the Past, the Present and the Future of America—to celebrate in ancient style and honored way, the Nation's Holiday, July Fourth.

Let us have a rousing meeting at Fireman's Hall, to-morrow afternoon. Come one—come many—come all!

Returned Soldiers will find it to their advantage to call at Mitchell's Clothing Store, opposite the Court House, to get a neat, handsome suit of clothes very cheap. Call and see.

The Wheat Crop Injured by Smut and Weevil.

A reliable farmer informed us a day or two ago, that the wheat crop, in portions of the eastern part of this County, is almost a total failure. The smut and the weevil are both making dreadful ravages. Our informant states that many fields will not be worth cutting.

Everybody needing clothing should patronize Mitchell, as he gives you the worth of your money and a neat, fashionable suit.

Public Schools—Examinations.

The examinations of the Public Schools will be continued on Monday afternoon, and Tuesday, at the Center Building, on Wednesday at the East Building, and on Thursday at the West Building. On Friday the Colored Schools will be examined.

The Exhibition of the High School will occur this (Friday) evening, at Theological Hall, Admission 25 cents.

The process, after defraying expenses, will be appropriated to the benefit of the School.

Xenia Marble Works.

I have taken the Xenia Marble Works again, and all wanting anything in my line of business will do well to give me a call.
All work executed with neatness and dispatch. Orders promptly filled.

Terrible Accident at Yellow Springs.

It has not been our duty for a long time, if ever, to record such a terrible accident as that which occurred at Yellow Springs, on last Wednesday, by which a daughter of Dr.
Fornha, aged about fourteen years, suddenly brought her own life to a sad termination.
We understand that the young lady was in the act of taking a pistol down from a shelf, wondering, as she said, if she "could shoot," when the load was accidentally discharged, killing her almost instantly. The terrible event sent distraction to the hearts of her parents, and cast a pall of gloom over the entire community.

Amusements in Xenia.

Xenia has been well (or badly) provided with public amusements during the past week.

A number of persons—bearing the formidable name of "The Athenaeum Dramatic Company"—gave a very indifferent theatrical spread at McMillan's Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week, and on Monday evening of this. We endured the performance one night, but couldn't be induced to undergo the affliction again. (We admire, intensely, the conceptions of the critic who pronounced the entertainment good (!) and who expressed a desire that the company should visit the city again! May the Lord spare us all! The critic should attend a City theater, at least once, and see a star performance.

On Tuesday night the original (!) Continental gave a Concert at the same Hall.
Their musical performances were very good, but their wit was weak indeed.

Mayor's Office.

The following cases have been decided during the week:

James Scott vs. Richard Harrington; replevin; decision in favor of plaintiff.
S. J. Oakley vs. Peter Stephens; plaintiff demanded $50 for services in apprehending a criminal, in 1860; decision in favor of plaintiff.

Henry Buchanan vs. William Lucas; replevin; decision in favor of plaintiff.

City of Xenia vs. George Burke; disorderly conduct; fined nine dollars and costs.

SABBATH SCHOOL CELEBRATION.

The Celebration of the Sabbath School of colored children, which took place at the Fair Grounds, on last Tuesday, was a most interesting occasion. Large numbers of people were present, all of whom manifested great interest in the proceedings. The exercises were opened in the forenoon with prayer by Rev. W. T. Findley, after which addresses were made by Rev. S. P. Lewis, Rev. Smith, of South Charleston, Rev. D. W. Childlaw, and Rev. Davis, of Xenia. In the afternoon addresses were delivered by Rev. Polinder, of Columbus, and Rev. McCaslin and Kendrick, of Xenia. The music of the occasion was excellent, M. C. Allison presiding at the piano, and Mrs. Hanter singing.

Mr. William Allison took charge of this Sabbath School seventeen years ago, and from that time to the present he has been unflinting and constant in his labors for its benefit.
At the time of its commencement it numbered only sixteen scholars. Now there are two hundred and fifty enrolled, with an average attendance of one hundred and ninety. To Mr. Allison's unwearied efforts much of the credit is due for the present prosperity of the School. He is the great pioneer in the movement.

The Festival in the evening was a grand affair, but we have no particulars.

CELEBRATION OF THE FOURTH OF JULY.

Mr. Brown—The recommendation made by the Sentinel a couple of weeks since, and by the Torch-Last week, in regard to celebrating the Fourth in this county, meets, so far as my observation goes, with universal favor. It is considered peculiarly fitting and proper now that the Union is saved forever, and its defenders are returning home with the nation's benediction resting upon them, that, by public demonstration on that historic day, we renew our homage to the former and extend a hearty welcome to the latter. Preparations for this, as you state, are being generally made in the principal counties throughout the country. Greene, the banner county in the case of the Union, owes it to herself as well as to her returning soldiers, to be in the front rank in this movement. Everybody seems to recognize this obligation, but the trouble seems to be to get the matter on foot.

In order therefore to make a beginning, as there is no time to be lost in mere talk, it is suggested that as many as feel an interest in this movement, and can be present, meet at Fireman's Hall, tomorrow, Saturday at 4 o'clock P. M., and take such action in the premises as is thought best.

Xenia, June 15, 1864. C. T. BROWN.

cents.

Closing Exercises of the Union Female Seminary.

The Union Female Seminary, of this city, will have the closing exercises of the session on Thursday and Friday, the 22nd and 23rd inst. The examination of the pupils will be held in the Seminary, on Thursday, and on Friday in the Theological Hall. The commencement exercises of the Graduating Class will be in the Hall on Friday evening, at eight o'clock. The Musical entertainment will be under the direction of Professor Fea-senden, who will doubtless make it interesting to all. The friends and patrons of the school as well as the public in general are invited to attend.

COMMITTEE.

From farmers, with whom we have conversed on the subject, we learn that the corn crop is now doing very well. Owing to the continued wet weather in the Spring farmers were late in getting their planting done; but during the last three or four weeks the weather has been so favorable—being sufficiently wet and sufficiently dry—that the crop is growing finely.

Pictures.

The great war just past developed its artists and its pictures, as well as its poets and its poetry. We were very vividly impressed with this fact the other day, as we looked at the beautiful pictures on exhibition in Fleming & Herpin's Bookstore.

One fine steel engraving, which we noticed, bearing this title—"The New Era of the American Nation," is very striking indeed, being bold, truthful and original in conception, and skillful and beautiful in execution.
It represents a monument, on the foundation stone of which is inscribed the following:

"THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT. Art. XIII.
Sec. 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.
Sec. 2. Congress shall have the power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation. Jan. 31st, 1865." On the left of the above is inscribed the following: "Peace by Arms Only;" on the right, "Justice to All Men." Just above the foundation stone, is a beautiful female figure, representing war, and on the other side a female figure representing peace. Then, above all these, is the American Eagle, with this inscription: "Liberty and Union." The monument is gloriously wrapped in the Stars and Stripes, and above all stands the Goddess of Liberty.

Another most vivid picture, bears the following title: "Sheridan's Cavalry Forcing a Pass in their Great Raid between Lee's Army and Richmond, May, 1864." Washington and Lincoln.

Another most striking picture is entitled, "Washington and Lincoln." Washington, serene and glorious, is represented as being in the clouds, with a wreath of flowers in his hand, receiving Lincoln, to crown him. What conception could be more beautiful?

Another fine steel engraving is entitled,
"Our Great Authors." Every lover of Literature should have it. It has portraits of Irving, Longfellow, Cooper, Prescott, Bancroft, Hawthorne, Bryant, Halleck, Emerson, Holmes, Whittier, Motley, Willis, Lowell, Kennedy, Morris, Taylor and Winthrop.

But we can not mention all the pictures to be seen here. To get a good idea of them, our readers must visit the store. "The House" —a mischievous girl tickling another girl with a straw—is true as life. "The Tour of Cupid," in six scenes, is fancy, and probably good. "First pair of Shoes" amusing, and "Whispering Angels" is charming.

Proceedings of the County Convention.

Pursuant to the call of the Central Committee, the County Convention convened at Fireman's Hall, on Saturday, June 10th, at 11 o'clock P. M. On motion, W. B. Fairchild was appointed Chairman, and H. Brelsford Secretary of the meeting. E. S. Nichols moved that seven delegates be elected to attend the State Convention. The following named gentlemen were then appointed delegates by acclamation: Capt. B. Nesbitt, J.
H. Brotherton, Isaac Strohm, Dr. C. H. Spahr, L. M. Barrett, C. W. Dewey, and John F. Patton. On motion the delegates were authorized to fill any vacancies that may occur in said delegation. The following named gentlemen were unanimously elected to serve on the Central Committee for the ensuing year:

A. Hivling, A. Trader, M. Barlow, E. H. Mun-ger, Perry Hawes, A. M. Stark, Seth W.
Brown, D. McMillan, and H. P. Galloway.

On motion the Convention adjourned.

W. B. FAIRCHILD,
Chairman.

H. BRESLFORD, Secretary.

A Profitable Sheep.

Mr. Geo. Canfield, of Xenia, can certainly bear off the prize in the sheep business. He has a lamb of the Spanish-Merino stock, which, at the age of twelve months, was shorn, making a yield of twelve pounds of good, fine wool. Who can beat this?

Greene County Monumental Association.

At a meeting of citizens of Greene County, held in the Fireman's Hall, Saturday, June 10th, on motion of E. S. Nichols, A. Trader was called to the Chair, and C. W. Newton appointed Secretary.

After some discussion, Mr. Fairchild offered the following resolution:

Resolved—That it is the sense of this meeting that a monument should be erected to the memory of the fallen heroes from our County, in the Court House Square, Xenia. Passed unanimously.

Mr. Nichols made a motion that a Committee of inquiry, consisting of five from the city and township of Xenia, and one from each township throughout the County be appointed by the Chair. The Committee's power being so limited that it have authority only to get specifications and learn the cost of such a monument, and report the same to a county meeting to be held for that purpose, at such a time as the Committee may appoint. Passed.

The Chairman appointed the following gentlemen on the Committee:

Xenia City and Township—E. S. Nichols, Chairman, T. L. Morris, A. Hivling, Frederic Benson, and D. McMillan.

Sugar Creek Township—Horace Brelsford, Beaver Creek—Wm. H. Giotfelter.
Bath—J. W. Greene.
Miami—J. E. Wilson.

Ross—David Paulin.
Silver Creek—Samuel H. Smith.
Jefferson—Thomas N. Haughey.
New Jasper—William Smith.
Cedarville—John F. Frasier.
Cass Creek—Paris Peterson.
Spring Valley—John H. Daugherty.

On motion adjourned.

A. TRADER, Chairman.

C. W. NEWTON, Secretary.

The 74th.

Mr. Ira S. Owens, of the 74th, called on us on Wednesday evening. From him we learned that the Regiment passed Cincinnati, on Tuesday evening, on its way to Louisville, where it will probably be mustered out in the course of two or three weeks.

Capt. Robert Hunter, of the 74th, has been in the City for several days.

Masonic Celebration.

There will be a Grand Masonic Celebration on the Fair Grounds, at Xenia, on Saturday, June 24th. An address will be delivered by Rev. C. A. Felton, of Columbus. The music of the occasion will be furnished by the Xenia Glee Club, and by the Cornet Band of Springfield. Dinner will be prepared on the ground, by Mr. Currie, of the Xenia Depot.

The exercises of the day will doubtless be very attractive and interesting.

"That's What's the Matter."

The reason of the great rush to Fleming & Herpin's Bookstore for Wall Paper and Stades, is, because they sell cheaper than any others in the line—so much so that they have ordered a fifth supply, to arrive in ten days. New and splendid patterns, ten per cent. cheaper than ever offered in Xenia. Give them a call and be convinced.

June 9-21.

All persons wishing to purchase pianos, organs, or melodians, will save
